Letter dated October 4, 1948, J. S. Bartlett to John F. Davis, showing connections and disconnections of electricity at various Hiss residences in Washington, D. C.

October 4, 1948

Mr. John F. Davis,
1700 Eye Street, N. W.,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Davis:

We have received a request from Priscilla Hiss that we provide you with information relative to electric service which we have supplied to her at several addresses, and we are very glad to comply with that request.

Our records disclose that electric service was supplied to Priscilla Hiss at the following addresses during the periods indicated:

	Service Turned On.		Service Turned Off.
Apt. #42—2831-28th St., N.W.	6- 9-34	(*5-1-35)	6-29-35
2905 P Street, N. W.	4-17-35		6-15-36
1245-30th St., N. W.	7- 1-36		1- 4-38
3415 Volta Place, N. W.	12-29-37

* Our records show that service at Apt. #42—2831 28th Street, N. W., was ordered disconnected as of May 1, 1935, whereas our disconnect records show it was actually discontinued on June 29, 1935. It is rather a common occurrence that a tentative "cutoff" date is established and subsequently we are instructed to postpone that date—or when our meter men arrive to complete the disconnect on the original date requested, they find the occupant still in the house and possibly at that time they are instructed to postpone the disconnect.

Records indicating kilowatt hour consumption and charges for service supplied during these dates are no longer in our files. Neither do our files disclose any correspondence in this matter. Under requirements of regulatory authorities such information is retained for not over six years.

Very truly yours,
J.S.B.
J. S. BARTLETT,
Commercial Manager.

"Uninstructive Creative"
VOL. XI November, 1922 No. 1

A Play for Puppets

Characters:

An old Centurion.

A young Centurion.

An angel (angel is dressed in white with tinsel, toy trumpet and wings).

Christ (Christ is dressed in grey kimono, long red hair covers bowed head, hands folded in front of Him).

Voice of God.

Act I

(The morning of the third day. Two Centurions are standing guard before the sepulchre of Christ. Sepulchre is hewn rock, closed by great slab; it occupies all back stage).

YOUNG C: This Jesus in here was a poor fellow.

OLD C: He was obstinate and proud.

YOUNG C: They say he never lay with a woman.

OLD C: I wouldn't blame no man for that. Women are wicked snares to the young. But he tried to keep others from it. That's where he went wrong. Now, Mark Anthony was a man! He could sack a city, a wine jug or a woman to beat any man in the Roman armies. Caesar was luckier and less to my taste. Men followed him because he led them..

YOUNG C: They were before my time.

OLD C: We loved Mark Anthony.

YOUNG C: And you believe he really never lay with a woman?

OLD C: This Nazarene? Pah! No! He had no blood. Mark Anthony, now, was all blood. Why, I've seen him tremble with the curtains of the Egyptian's palanquin. By Baal, she'd break forth like the sun. That was a woman! And every man her moon to catch her mood. O, I've seen generals, grey beards weeping for rage to keep him from her. Let them alone, said I, let them alone. But old men are obstinate.

YOUNG C: Well, Octavius wouldn't sweat for her.

OLD C: No, he's like this Jesus. He'd have none of women. I saw him the day that Herod of Judea went over to the Roman arms.

YOUNG C: That is the day you deserted?

OLD C: Deserted? Heh? Deserted! Who was I to stand against the Senate and armies of the Roman people? I was never proud. I might have been a captain of ten thousand, but thought I, my father was a centurion and Mark Anthony makes me a centurion. What's good for my father is good for me. And so I told my betters and so I tell you. Be content and life will——!

YOUNG C: (abstracted) There is a woman in the Saad street of Jerusalem with breasts like king-pines. I hope the winter will be open in Apulia.

OLD C: Why in Apulia?

YOUNG C: My mother lives in Agrigentum of Apulia. But I have given away my pay to the beautiful one of the Saad street.

The Morningside

OLD C: When I was very young I loved in Ephesus. She gilded her breasts like Persian oranges. But you are young; you do not yet know that all women look alike in the dark.

(Thunder stroke! The slab falls face downward. Centurions flee. Angel enters.)

ANGEL: Arise! Arise! Let the Son of God arise from death and forsake the sepulchre. For Thou art the truth, the way and the light.

VOICE OF CHRIST: (from tomb) Who is breaking my sleep?

ANGEL: The Word of God.

VOICE OF C: What is God?

ANGEL: Thy Father which is in Heaven.

VOICE OF C: (recollecting) Heaven? Let me sleep. I am weary.

ANGEL: Arise! Arise! It is the morning of the third day. Let the Son of God arise from the dead!

VOICE OF C: Why do you bring the light back to me?

ANGEL: Thou shall stand upon the right hand of the throne of God and intercede for the Souls of sinful men.

VOICE OF C: What is sin? Do not men live and do not men die? I wish to sleep.

ANGEL: (blowing toy-trumpet) Arise! Lord! Lord! Arise!

VOICE OF C: Does God never die?

ANGEL: The Lord high God is Thine eternal Father.

The Morningside

VOICE OF C: Some thoughtless one has betrayed thee. My father is Joseph, the carpenter of Nazareth. Roll back the stone and go thy way. It is very quiet in the earth and I will sleep.

(Thunder and trumpets.)

VOICE OF GOD: Behold! Behold! Ye Nations! This, the beloved Son of The Most High God is arisen and redeems the souls of men!

ANGEL: Behold! Thou art risen! Come forth.

CHRIST: (Meekly following Angel off right) I am the truth, the way and the light.

(Centurions stealing back.)

OLD C: Thus women work evil upon men. This comes of talk of loose women. They have stolen the body.

YOUNG C: We shall be whipped.

OLD C: I shall lose my century.

YOUNG C: I must see her tonight tho they kill me.

Curtain.

John Kelly.

Notes of Whittaker Chambers's conversations with Raymond Murphy, March 20, 1945, and August 28, 1946.

Reproduced on following pages.

Memorandum of Conversation, Tuesday, March 20, 1945, Westminster, Md.

The person talking was the liaison man for the Communitst Party of the United States with most of the persons listed below and he spoke from personal knowledge not hearsay. At the time he described the official line of the Communist Party was anti-Adminstration, pretty violent, and the anithises of the Popular Front days of post-1935. It is true that this second phase blended in with the first period during which these persons continued coopeyation.

It seems that in 1934 with the establishment of the Agricuktural Adjustment Administration and the intrpduction of much reform legislation in Washington, the Communist Party decided its influence could be felt more strongly by enlisting the actibe support of underground workers not openly identified with the Party and never previoulsy affiliated with the Party but whose background and training would make them possible prospects as ffiliates forunder the guise of advancing reform legislation. The Hungarian, party name J. Peters was seclected by the Central Committee to supervise the work from New York. His Washington representative and contact man was the informant and he personally met and discussed mahy times various problems with the persons listed below except those specifically named as coming under another person's jusrisdiction. The persons listed below are said to have disclosed much confidential matter and to have arranged among themselves a program committing this government to a policy in keeping with the desires of the Communist Party.

Thepe opportunity presented itself for the formation of an undergonound group with the appointment to a leading position in the Agricultural Adjustment Adminsitation in 1934 of one Harold Ware. Ware had worked for years in agricultural collectivization projects in Russia. He was a son of Ella Reeves Bloor, veteran American Communists bytone of her numerous marriages. On being assigned to this agency Ware found a group of very promising, ambitious young men with advanced social and political ideas. Among them were Lee Preseman, Alger Hiss, Henry Collins and Charles Kramer (Krivitzky). They all joined the Communist Party and became leaders of cells. No cell hace over ten members. This was the nucleus of the communist underground organkzation in Washington. The prupose was for each memebr to advance as high as possible in the government to shape legislation favorable to the program of the Communist Party.. The top leaders of the under ground were:

1. Harold Ware.
2. Lee Pressman.
3. Alger Hiss. In the order of their im portanced.

There were varius underground headquarters in Washington at the time. Among these were a violin studio hear Dupont Circle run by Helen ware, another place was a school on the outskirts of Washington run by Alice Mendham.

The informant dealt with these people from 1934 to the end of 1937 when he broke with the Party and attempted to persudde varous of these contacts to break also. He remembers several conversations with Alger Hiss in the early part

1938 during which Hiss was adamant against the plan of breaking with the Party. He desrcibed Hiss as a person with a charming peronality, abolustely sincere in his convictions and motivated by the idea that he was on the right track.

The informant traced the jobs of thse men until the end of 1937 and in each job they worked together with each other and with the aParty. Later adherents to the Party inckuded Donald Hiss, henry Collins and a man nmed Post in the State Department.

In a special category were Noah Field and Lawrence Duggane of the State Department. Field was described as a member at large of the Party, Duggan was not. Neither was connected with the undergonound and in fact the undergr.und had orders to refrain from cojtacting them. The special liaison of Field and Duggan was one Hetta Gumperts. She is now in the personnel department of the Todd Sipbuilding Corporation and is married to Paul Massing, a formmer member of the German Communist Party described by General Krivitzky in his book. Massing is a penologist for the State of Pennsylvania and they have a famr near Quakertwon , Penna. He is also known as Karl Billinger. Hetta Gumperts is a Viennese Jewish grild. When Field wnet to the League of Nations in 1936 he left Duggan in her special care. Gumperts was a Communist International agent. It is understood that Field and Duggan disclosed any information she wanted to know.

Harry White if the Treasury was described as a member at large but rather timid. He put on as assistants in the Treasury Glaser a member of the undergnound group and an Adler or Odler another Party member. The two Coe brothers, also Party members, were also put on by White.

Nathan Kaplan head of the National Research Project was a party member as was the other head and his sister Rose Weinstein.

Lee Pressman was not lnky a Party member. He was directed by the Party to accept the offer of John L. Lewis in 1936 to become General C ounsel of the C.I.C. Pressman si said to have run arms to Spain during the Civial War via Mexico and to have worked with Geral Mark More in tha project. Moren was involved in the Rubens* Robinson passport case in 1938.

Nathan Witt of the Labor Board was a Party member. and also underground.

When Harold Ware was killed in an auto accident near Baltiomore about 1936, John Abtsucceeded him as leader of the undergound in Washington. Abt not only succeeed him in the job, he married Ware's widow Jessica Smith. Abt today is associated as coun -sel of the CIO-PAC with Sidney Hillman and was a delegate to the recent Trade Union Conference in London.

Eleanor Nelson ran a low-grade but important commujist proup in the overnment. More of a trade union group but its members gad access to government files which would be made available to the Party. Liss was a member of this group.

1938 during which Hiss was adamant against the plan of breaking with the Party. He desrcibed Hiss as a person with a charming peronality, abolustely sincere in his convictions and motivated by the idea that he was on the right track.

The informant traced the jobs of thse men until the end of 1937 and in each job they worked together with each other and with the Party. Later adherents to the Party inckuded Donald Hiss, henry Collins and a man nmed Post in the State Department.

In a special category were Noel Field and Lawrence Duggane of the State Department. Field was described as a member at large of the Party, Duggan was not. Neither was connected with the undergonound and in fact the underground had orders to refrain from cojtacting them. The special liaison of Field and Duggan was one Hetta Gumperts. She is now in the personnel department of the Todd Sipbuilding Corporation and is married to Paul Massing, a formmer member of the German Communist Party described by General Krivitzky in his book. Massing is a penologist for the State of Pennsylvania and they have a famr near Quakertwon , Penna. He is also known as Karl Billinger. Hetta Gumperts is a Viennese Jewish grild. When Field wnet to the League of Nations in 1936 he left Duggan in her special care. Gumperts was a Communist International agent. MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION, August 28, 1948

The Communist underground in Washington is believed to have been set up sometime in 1933 after the inauguration of President Roosevelt. My informant does not know how or when it was set up, but he believes that Harold Ware had a prominent part in creating the underground and in enlisting key members. Ware, of course, would have acted pursuant to orders from the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the United States.

My informant entered into the Washington picture in the summer of 1935 and left it and the Party at the end of December, 1937. The group was already in being and functioning actively. His superior was the Hungarian known as J. Peters, the national head of the Communist underground movement. My informant acted as a courier between Washington and New York. He participated in oral discussions in Washington with the group which Peters himself conducted. They met only the top layer -- in other words, leaders of cells of the Communist underground in Government circles.

My informant did not know the Coe who taught at McGill University, but he understood that he was a Communist. The Harry other Coe he definitely knew to be a Communist. Harold White was reported to be a member of one of the cells, not a leader, and his brother-in-law, a dentist in New York is said to be a fanatical Communist. Alger Hiss was never to make converts. His job was to mess up policy. The Post of the State Department was a cell member. He thought he was of Nat Perlow's group. Post was formerly on the WPA where he measured skulls. He was definitely of minor importance in the movement compared with Hiss.

The heads of the various underground groups in Washington who met with Peters were the Hisses, Kramer (Krivitzky), Henry Collins, who was either Secretary or Treasurer of the group, John Abt, Lee Pressman, Nat Perlow, and Nat Witt. These men met regularly at special meetings. With the exception of Donald Hiss, who did not have an organization ~~committee~~ they or headed parallel organizations. But they did not know the personnel of the different organizations.

Hal Ware was the top man of these organizations. Upon his death in 1936 a fight broke out for leadership, but Nat Witt won out. Sometime after 1937 Witt is said to have been succeeded by Abt.

(There were other underground Communist groups operating in Washington, but this was the elite policy-making, top-level group.) This group did not exchange secret documents from the Government Departments, but did give sealed reports on the membership of the groups and on policy. It was not a spy ring but one far more important and cunning because its members helped to shape policy in their Departments. Henry Collins as Secretary or Treasurer, delivered most of the sealed reports to my informant. At that time ~~Harold~~ Henry Collins was believed to be working in the Forestry Division of Agriculture.

Peters was in the Agricultural Department of Hungary under Bela Kun. He was in the Austrian Army in World War I. He is a little dark fellow, small feet and wavy black hair.

At the meetings in Washington with this group Peters would give pep talks on Communist theory. He would then talk to each leader separately. Peters often discussed the morale with my informant. He praised the Hiss boys to my informant very highly but was doubtful of Pressman. He had a high opinion of Witt, a slightly less high opinion of Abt, thought Kramer was a nice boy but shallow and had very little use for Perlow. He liked Henry Collins.

My informant asked Alger Hiss personally to break with the Party in early 1938, but Hiss refused with tears in his eyes and said he would remain loyal to the Party.

After his break with the Party, Grace Hutchins telephoned the mother of my informant on Long Island one night and said that if he did not return to the Party by the following Thursday, it was a question of his death.

Referred to Mr. Fitzgerald

Dear Mr. Schelker, Re: Policy No. 604-460

This is in reply to your letter of February 11, 1933. The answers to the three questions contained in your letter are as follows:

1. I have always had two or three sieges of bronchial inflammation each winter. These would last for a week or two. At times I would have a slight fever and once in three or four years I would spend a day or so in bed as a result of the fever.

2. I wear glasses for reading only. My vision at twenty feet is materially improved for reading purposes by my glasses. For a more detailed statement as to the acuity of my vision and for information as to the type and degree of lenses I use I shall have to refer you to my oculist, Dr. Le Grand H. Hardy, 30 East 40th Street, New York City.

3. In 1922 I was circumcised.

Very truly yours,

Alger Hiss

Dear Miss Hellings:

Dr Peltz,my physician and Dr Wolfert U?of P.heart specialist have ordered me to 16 hrs a day in bed to try and build up my resistence which at present seems to be nil. The blood pressure is below 110 and the pulse 100 so to bed it is; I did not come in on Saturday and if I am very good I may be able to come on Friday,at least that is what I am hoping. Doesnt it sound silly,16hrs in bed and 5 meals,ye Gods,when eating is a bore anyway. Id go to Atlantic City if I had the money, that would I know put me on my fest. It has been a hard year physically for me,and that combined with the nerve strain since spring about the parents has just about reduced me very close to a nervous breakdown. I do not believe that there is anything pressing in the department.Miss Oberlander will return on Monday, and the additional desks have changed the morale of the staff,even in the short time, very much,which Allah be praised If there is a staff meeting either Miss Hagar or Miss Galbreth will be there ,to attend; and every one in the department has their"own job". With many thanks for your kindnesses,

Sincerely yours,

Dan Gansler

President's Report for the year 1936--1937.

Your president's report for the year should be entirely devoted to acknowledgment of help, it seems to me. The blitheness with which I entered the office at last Spring's last meeting had entirely evaporated by early Fall when I realized that the Club had taken upon itself the role of sponsoring two benefits and in addition the role of playing hostess to thirty three alumnae for the three-day Alumnar Council meeting.

All thanks should go to Canon Stokes for his extremely generous donation of time and energy in the series of lectures he gave for our scholarship fund in November. The efforts of Olivia Stokes, Laurie Stein and Margery Swope went into the arrangements for the lectures and contributed a great deal to their success. The response was very good, it seems to me, and the needy scholarship fund was the richer by a welcome one hundred and fifty dollars.

Came the Council meeting at the end of February, as you all know, and a more valiant committee never functioned under a more devoted chairman, Dorothea Blaisdell. At times it seemed to the Committee as though every poseible fatality had been encountered only to have another crisis ariee as it planned away for the food, housing and clothing for thirty three people for three days (and the clothing problem, or rather the dressing problem, really wae acute when one remembers that Council members did have to have eomewhere to dress between some of the functions). The Chairman of the Committee, Mrs Blaisdell, very amusingly recounted some of the mishape in her March report to the Club. I think I should amplify her report with the remark that I really dont see how we could have provided a nicer background for the Council meetings, and that I do feel it was tremendously worth while for the Club to make the effort. Some sixty two Washington Bryn Mawrters appeared ~~for~~ at the Council dinner and the entire session pulled the Club together in a way that should be helpful for next year.

The benefit choice of Jane Eyre, with Katherine Hepburn, even in Holy Week, proved an excellent one on the part of the play committee. Mrs Grant, Olivia Stokes, Mrs O'Hara, Mrs Moorehead, and Mrs Tate had a very short time indeed to work out the details of selling tickets and publicity and accomplished wonders. And then there was of course the perfect gift of Katherine Hepburn herself to the scholarship fund. Her gesture was part and parcel of a very charming performance. We did not entertain for her because we thought she would be too busy and because we thought she didnt like social affairs. We did telegraph her about the benefit and wrote her afterwards.

Our speakers for the year were three: Mr Roy Veatch, of the State Department, and two alumnae, Olivia Fountain and Dr. Ethel Dunham, who spoke on their interesting work with the Federal Government. The fact that too many of our ~~C~~lub meetings had to be business meetings prevented our having more speakers.

Our scholarship chairman, Mrs Tate, deserves especial thanks from the Club for stirring up so much interest in our District scholarship, particularly among the high schools, and for her faithful cooperation with College in all of the scholarship problems as they have arisen about our past and future candidates. She has been a most helpful and pleasant worker for the year as have our treasurer and secretary, Mrs Abbott and Mrs Kelton.

So you see I really feel that my report to you should be in the nature of a bread and butter letter for the pleasant year I have had working with you and the deep thanks I feel for the help the committees have been.

Throughout the year various problems of policy came up and had too little discussion because of the hecticness of this particular year of the Club's life. In closing I should like to recommend to the Club, however, that next year, perhaps during the first few meetings, mi ht be a good ti e to shape policy on various points which, once settled, would save time for the future. In particular there is the problem of our scholarships, to wit, whether we shall send one girl to Bryn Mawr for four years or each year launch a different freshman from the District at Bryn Mawr. Another problem which comes up every year is that of whether to "save for a rainy day" or whether to disburse all of our funds annually. A third problem is the relationship of the Washington Club to the Summer School, that is whether the Summer School which is now much more a part of the College than ever before, does not belong among our responsibilities.

So, having helped to settle none of these major problems of policy this year, I pass the burden along to the Club next year with a hearty God Speed.

I Schooling

Ten years old on September 19, 1936. Intellectually quick and intelligent. Lively interest in new information. Except for one year at the Sidwell Friends School has always attended progressive scholls and pre-schools of uneven merit but all with considerable individual supervision and little formal schooling. Reads well and enjoys it, spells and writes rather badly, fond of arithmetic but has not had a particularly satisfactory grounding in its fundamentals and will require special help. Enjoys music, has had two years of very simple piano training, naturally good ear and sense of rhythm, likes to sing. Natural mechanical interest and some ingenuity.

II Sports

Physically strong and active. Intense and apt to get over excited if not kept calm by occasional outside help. Has had little successful participation in organized athletics but at camp this summer has shown definite improvement in ability to participate in group games. Good at swimming and capable at riding -- enjoys both. Has rudimentary knowledge of baseball, football and basketball, in order named.

III General psychological traits not described above.

Only child. Has lived with mother and stepfather since the age of three. In past two years has occasionally visited father, resulting in some traces of strain -- mostly from absence of familiar routine and receipt of rather lavish presents. Imaginative, impulsive, sense of humor, frequently thoughtless of others but not mean or petty, tries to get own way but is definitely happiest when under consistent, friendly and rather firm discipline-- even though in moments of stress he pretends to misunderstand it. Apt to be acquisitive of material things and to get friends to give him their possessions in a thoughtless, impulsive kind of selfishness. Needs considerable help in social adjustment and self control, but has consciously improved in these respects in past eighteen months. Affectionate and intense in personal relations, tending to get over excited and fresh. Needs affection in return, but a consistent and calm relationship rather than stimulation. When lacking in security through fatigue, irregular discipline or too much stimulation is apt to try to dominate group activity to point of bossiness. He responds well to reeponsibility of which he is capable. This should come gradually as he is still too unstable to be able to handle much responsibility.

Sidwell Friends School considered him non-conforming, lazy, rude and lacking in cooperation but made no effort to study his individual problems. Withdrawn by parents from Friends School to give him fresh start and to avoid a fixed faculty antagonism there. Being naturally sunny and cheerful he held no grudgee against Friends School and liked all his teachers. Had every expectation of returning, although he knew his status had been doubtful at end of last term. Got along well with most schoolmates, chummed with most individualistic and nonconforming types. Had some kind of scrape with Christopher Amussen in which Tim received a bruised eyeball which became slightly infected. Reason for fight never satisfactorily explained. Shock of unusually painful outcome left him afraid of Christopher for a while and still offish.

Statement to Federal Bureau of Investigation signed by Alger Hiss December 4, 1948.

Baltimore, Maryland
December 4, 1948

I, Mr. ALGER HISS, residence, 22 East 8th Street, New York City, in the presence of my attorney, Mr. WILLIAM L. MARBURY, give the following voluntary signed statement to DANIEL F. X. CALLAHAN and FRANK G. JOHNSTONE, who have identified themselves to me as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I have been advised that I need make no statement and that anything I say may be used against me.

At the request of my attorneys, Mr. WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, defendant in a libel suit filed by me in the United States District Court for Maryland at Baltimore, was called for an examination before trial. This examination took place in Mr. MARBURY'S office, 1000 Maryland Trust Building, Baltimore, Maryland, on November 4, 5, 16 and 17, 1948, but a portion of the time stated was consumed in taking depositions from Mrs. WHITTAKER CHAMBERS.

On the afternoon of November 17, 1948, in the course of the pre-trial examination, Mr. CHAMBERS introduced 65 letter-sized pages of typewritten material and four small sheets of paper bearing handwritten material. For simplification, hereafter in this statement the 65 pages will be referred to as the large documents and the four smaller pages, as the small documents.

In introducing these documents, Mr. CHAMBERS stated that they had been received by him from me for transmittal to a Russian named Colonel BYKOV. Photostatic copies of the documents introduced by Mr. CHAMBERS at the pre-trial examination were first exhibited to me by Mr. MARBURY in New York City on November 18, 1948. The agents have exhibited to me similar photostatic copies of these documents, which I am satisfied are photostatic copies of the same documents introduced by Mr. CHAMBERS under the above circumstances. I have read portions of the court reporter's transcription of the deposition of Mr. CHAMBERS and I know from the portion of that transcription which I have read that on November 5, 1948, Mr. CHAMBERS was asked whether he had ever obtained any documents from me for transmittal to the Communist Party and he replied that he had not.

With reference to the large documents, I would say from a cursory examination of them that they appear to be authentic copies of United States State Department documents or summaries of such documents. From the date standpoint, these documents appear to be restricted to a period extending from about January to March, 1938. At that time I was Assistant to the Assistant Secretary of State, the Honorable FRANCIS B. SAYRE. Documents similar to these normally passed over my desk for perusal prior to being referred to Mr. SAYRE. I do not have any independent recollection of having seen any of these documents or the documents summarized while I was in the employ of the State Department. By and large, these do not appear to be documents of a very highly confidential nature and would not have been treated in the State Department with any special precautions at that time, according to security regulations in effect then.

With reference to the smaller documents, three of the four pages appear to be in my handwriting. The fourth page, consisting of five handwritten lines, may or may not be in my handwriting, but it does not look to me as if it were.

I have learned from talking with Mr. MARBURY and from reading the above-mentioned deposition that Mr. CHAMBERS claimed these documents and others like them were obtained by me from the State Department, and that I took them to my home, where typewritten copies of the larger documents were made on a typewriter in my home by either my wife or me. CHAMBERS claimed that I then returned the documents to the State Department files. The agents have told me that Mr. CHAMBERS claims that on some occasions I turned over the actual State Department documents to him, upon which he would have photographic copies made in a manner unknown to me, and then would return the original documents to me for replacement in the files of the State Department.

I deny that any of the above claims of Mr. CHAMBERS is true. I also deny that I ever gave the originals of the small documents to Mr. CHAMBERS at any time for any purpose whatsoever.

From Mr. MARBURY and the deposition, I have also learned that CHAMBERS claims he introduced me to a Russian named PETER, whom he claims later to have discovered was Colonel BYKOV. CHAMBERS claims that this meeting took place on the mezzanine floor of a movie theater in Brooklyn, New York. CHAMBERS claims that after the meeting, the three of us took a long walk and that during the conversation while walking, Colonel BYKOV asked me if I could obtain documents for him from the files of the State Department. CHAMBERS claims that I agreed to cooperate in this regard with this Colonel BYKOV and that as a result of this oral agreement, I later produced the documents mentioned above. I deny that any of these claims of CHAMBERS is true. I have never met and had never heard of any Russian named PETER or Colonel BYKOV until I was told of the testimony given by Mr. CHAMBERS.

During the period from about June 1, 1936, to about January, 1938, I resided with my family at 1245-30th Street, N. W., and subsequent thereto, until sometime in 1943, at 3415 Volta Place, N.W., both Washington, D.C. During the period from 1936 to sometime after 1938, we had a typewriter in our home in Washington. This was an old-fashioned machine, possibly an Underwood, but I am not at all certain regarding the make. Mrs. HISS, who is not a typist, used this machine somewhat as an amateur typist, but I never recall having used it. Possibly samples of Mrs. HISS' typing on this machine are in existence, but I have not located any to date, but will endeavor to do so. Mrs. HISS disposed of this typewriter to either a second-hand typewriter concern or a second-hand dealer in Washington, D.C., sometime subsequent to 1938, exact date or place unknown. The whereabouts of this typewriter is presently unknown to me. Prior to this typewriter coming into the possession of my immediate family, it was the property of Mr. THOMAS FANSLER, Mrs. HISS' father, who was in the insurance business in Philadelphia. Mr. FANSLER lived the later years of his life on Walnut Street in Philadelphia, but is now deceased, having died in the early 1940's.

Until I met Mr. CHAMBERS face to face at a hearing of a sub-committee of the House Committee on Un-American Activities on August 17, 1948, in the Hotel Commodore, New York City, I did not know whether I had ever previously met CHAMBERS although I thought that newspaper pictures of him looked somewhat familiar. When I first appeared before the House Committee on Un-American activities on August 5, 1948, I stated that to the best of my knowledge I had never met CHAMBERS. At that time it had not occurred to me that he might be GEORGE CROSLEY. On August 16, 1948, before a sub-committee of the House Committee on Un-American activities in Washington, D. C., I stated that CHAMBERS might be a person previously known to me as GEORGE CROSLEY. Upon confrontation on August 17, I realized that CHAMBERS is identical with a man I had previously known as GEORGE CROSLEY. I first met CHAMBERS as GEORGE CROSLEY when I was employed as Legal Assistant to the United States Senate Munitions Committee, commonly known as the Nye Committee, about December, 1934, or January, 1935. CHAMBERS came to me in my office in the Senate Office Building in Washington, D. C and stated that he was a free-lance magazine writer and desired information for a series of articles on the munitions investigation. At that time I was on loan to the United States Senate Munitions Committee by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture, where I was regularly employed as Assistant General Counsel. At that time CHAMBERS gave me the impression that he was making periodic trips to Washington from New York City, where, I assumed, he lived.

Between the turn of the year 1934-35 and the Spring or Summer, 1936, CHAMBERS contacted me perhaps six or eight times, always for the purpose of obtaining information for his magazine articles or discussing the problems of the munitions investigation. CHAMBERS was merely one of the number of newspaper men, writers and students who came to see the employees of the Munitions Committee about the Committee's activities. I deny that I ever saw or heard from CHAMBERS from the Spring or Summer of 1936 until we confronted one another at the abovementioned hearing in the Commodore Hotel in New York City.

During the period when CHAMBERS periodically contacted me in Washington, he occasionally borrowed small sums of money from me, totalling twenty to thirty dollars, four or five dollars at a time. He appeared to be hard-pressed financially. Also during this period, under an oral agreement, I sub-let my apartment at 2831 28th Street, NW, Washington, D .C., to MR. and MRS. CHAMBERS and child. Prior to subletting this apartment to CHAMBERS, at sixty dollars a month, I and my family moved into a three-story house at 2905 P Street, NW, Washington, D. C. Before taking occupancy of the abovementioned apartment, CHAMBERS and his family spent two or three days on the third floor of my home on P Street. My recollection is that Mr. CHAMBERS informed me that some of his furniture or other possessions had not arrived on time; that his family and he could not, therefore, move into the 28th Street apartment immediately.

We put them up as a favor to sub-tenants. As far as I know, CHAMBERS and his family lived in the apartment on 28th Street until the expiration of my lease on July 1, 1935. During sub-tenancy of my apartment on 28th Street by CHAMBERS, I continued to pay the rent and CHAMBERS has never reimbursed me nor has he repaid the small loans. He did on one occasion give me a rug which he said he had received from some patron of his and while they were staying at my house on P Street, his wife painted a portrait of my young stepson, TIMOTHY HOBSON, who was then eight years old. I have no clear recollection of the date of my last contact with CHAMBERS, which probably occurred in the Spring or Summer of 1936, while I was employed as an attorney by the Department of Justice in Washington, D. C. However, I do recall the contact quite well and on this occasion I told Mr. CHAMBERS that I did not think he would ever repay the loans he had made and that I thought we should discontinue any further contacts. I also want to state that CHAMBERS never paid me any funds for any purpose. During the period mentioned above when CHAMBERS was contacting me, most of the contacts were made by him at my office or for lunch, with the possible exceptions that he may have contacted me on several occasions at my residences.

In connection with the sublease of the apartment, I occasionally lent Mr. CHAMBERS the use of my 1929 model Ford roadster. This Ford was dark blue in color, had a rumble seat and a small trunk in the rear, and bore District of Columbia plates. Sometime in the Summer of 1935,

I acquired a 1935 Plymouth, two-door sedan, a demonstrator model. Sometime after acquiring the Plymouth, I told Mr. CHAMBERS he could have the Ford roadster, which I had been told had a trade-in value of twenty-five dollars when I bought the Plymouth. If Mr. CHAMBERS used the Ford in the Fall of 1935 or the Winter of 1935-36, it must have been only occasionally because I recall it sitting on the streets of Georgetown during a number of months of that Winter. Sometime before I left P Street, about May or June, 1936, CHAMBERS took permanent possession of the car under circumstances I do not now exactly recall. At that time or earlier I had turned over to him the certificate of title. I did not have the Ford after that date and have never seen it since. I have no recollection of the occasion on which I signed the certificate of title. The certificate of title for the Ford bears what appeared to be my signature witnessed under date of July 23, 1936, by MARVIN SMITH, a notary public, who was also employed in the same office where I was in the Department of Justice. I can only assume that the certificate was brought to me in my office in the Department of Justice by someone who said that I had disposed of the car without completing the legal technicalities and that I signed under those circumstances and asked MARVIN SMITH to witness my signature.

As far as I can remember, the above represents a history of all my contacts and dealings with Mr. CHAMBERS to date which appear to me to be pertinent.

I have made an effort personally, through counsel and private investigators, to locate other persons who knew CHAMBERS as GEORGE CROSLEY during the period from the turn of the year 1934-1935 to the spring or summer of 1936, but without success. I have discovered one person who claims that CHAMBERS at one time submitted a manuscript to him for publication under the name GEORGE CROSLEY, but that was during a much earlier period, approximately in 1926. Both Mr. and Mrs. CHAMBERS state that during this time, they were living in Baltimore under the name of LLOYD CANTWELL, as I have learned from the deposition. This search, of course, excepts Mrs. HISS and TIMOTHY HOBSON, my stepson, who was only eight years old during the above mentioned period. This search included inquiry among known fellow employees of the United States Senate Munitions Committee, and persons that either my wife or I introduced CHAMBERS or his wife to under the name of CROSLEY. This search to confirm my statement that CHAMBERS was going under the name of GEORGE CROSLEY during the above mentioned period will continue and if successful, the Government will be advised.

I deny that I am now or ever have been a member of the Communist Party or that I have ever attended any Communist Party meetings. Likewise, I deny that I have ever been a member of a Communist Party espionage apparatus or underground group in Washington, D. C. or anywhere else, at any time.

I never saw Mr. CHAMBERS at any time in the State Department. I know of no opportunity had by Mr. CHAMBERS, either in my office in the State Department or in my residence or any other place, to obtain any documents pertaining to State Department business, during the period 1937-1938 or any other time. I do not know whether CHAMBERS personally obtained these documents from the State Department or whether he had some confederate who cooperated with him in obtaining these documents.

I assert that Mr. CHAMBERS' entire story, with respect to the matters covered above that relate to me, is a complete fabrication except as otherwise indicated in this statement by me.

I do not know what motive Mr. CHAMBERS could have for making these accusations against me, but I think that a thorough examination of Mr. CHAMBERS' life and personal background might throw some light on this problem.

The foregoing represents an accurate account of statements I have made today to Mr. JOHNSTONE and Mr. CALLAHAN. It was dictated in my presence and that of my counsel, Mr. MARBURY, and I assisted at various places in the phrasing of that dictation. I have read the entire statement and have signed it below this paragraph and have initialled each page at the bottom thereof.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

On the annexed affidavit of EDWARD C. McLEAN, sworn to the 3rd day of November, 1949, the indictment herein and all proceedings heretofore had herein, let the United States Attorney show cause at Room 318 in the United States Court House, Foley Square, City of New York on the 7th day of November, 1949 at 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, why an order should not be made herein, pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, permitting the defendant and his attorneys to inspect and to copy the following papers, documents and tangible objects:

a. All letters, memoranda and papers of any nature claimed to have been typewritten by the defendant or by any other person on any typewriter at any time owned by, or in the possession of, the defendant or the defendant's wife or any member of the defendant's family.

b. All letters, memoranda and other papers of any nature, whether typewritten or handwritten, purporting to have been written or that may have been written at any time in whole or in part by Whittaker Chambers or by his wife.

AND FURTHER let the United States Attorney show cause why an order should not be made herein, pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, permitting the defendant, his attorneys and his experts to inspect and to test for quality, age and characteristics the paper upon which Government Exhibits Baltimore 5-47, exclusive of Government Exhibit Baltimore 10, are typed.

ORDERED FURTHER that service of a copy of this order made on the United States Attorney on or before the 3rd day of November, 1949, shall be sufficient.

AFFIDAVIT

State of New York
County of New York ss.:

EDWARD C. McLEAN being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am an attorney-at-law and a member of the firm of Debevoise, Plimpton & McLean, attorneys of record for the defendant in this action. I make this affidavit in support of:

(1) The defendant's motion for an order, pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, directing the United States to permit the defendant to inspect and to copy the following documents, papers and tangible objects:

a. All letters, memoranda and papers of any nature claimed by the United States to have been typewritten by the defendant or by any other person on any typewriter at any time owned by, or in the possession of, the defendant or the defendant's wife or any member of the defendant's family.

b. All letters, memoranda and other papers of any nature, whether typewritten or handwritten, purporting to have been written or that may have been written at any time in whole or in part by Whittaker Chambers or by his wife.

(2) The defendant's motion for an order, pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, directing the United States to permit the defendant to inspect and to test for quality, age and characteristics the paper upon which Government Exhibits Baltimore 5-47, exclusive of Government Exhibit Baltimore 10, are typed.

2. The indictment in this action contains two counts, each for the crime of perjury allegedly committed by the defendant on December 15, 1948. The first count alleges that on or about December 15, 1948, the Grand Jurors duly impanelled and sworn in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York were conducting an investigation pertaining to possible violations of espionage laws of the United States and other federal criminal statutes, and that it was material to that investigation to ascertain whether United States statutes had been violated by the unlawful abstraction or removal of secret, confidential or restricted documents, writings, sketches, notes or other papers by persons employed by the United States Government, or by the furnishing, delivery or transmittal of any such documents, writings, sketches, notes or other papers to any unauthorized persons. The indictment alleges that the defendant, a witness before said Grand Jury, testified under oath that he had not turned over to one Whittaker Chambers any documents of the State Department or of any other government organization, or any copies of such documents. The indictment charges that the said testimony of defendant was false in that the defendant "being then and there employed in the Department of State, in or about the months of February and March 1938, furnished, delivered and transmitted to one Jay David Whittaker Chambers, who was not then and there a person authorized to receive the same, copies of numerous secret, confidential and restricted documents, writings, notes and other papers, the originals of which had theretofore been removed and abstracted from the possession and custody of the Department of State."

The second count of the indictment, after realleging the allegations of the first count pertaining to the Grand Jury investigation, alleges that defendant further testified as a witness before the Grand Jury that he thought that he could say definitely that he had not seen said Whittaker Chambers after January 1, 1937. The indictment charges that that testimony was untrue in that "the defendant did in fact see and converse with the said Mr. Chambers in or about the months of February and March 1938."

3. The defendant pleaded not guilty to each count of the indictment on December 16, 1948. The first trial of this action began May 31, 1949 before the Honorable Samuel H. Kaufman, District Judge for the Southern District of New York. It was concluded on July 8, 1949 when the jury reported that it had been unable to reach a verdict. The second trial was set for October 10, 1949. On that date it was adjourned until November 1, 1949 by Judge Vincent L. Leibell. On October 31, 1949 it was adjourned until November 17, 1949 by Judge William Bondy.

4. Certain facts which occurred prior to the indictment in this action which have relevance to the issues raised by this motion may be briefly summarized as follows:

In August 1948, certain hearings were held in Washington, D. C. by the Committee on Un-American Activities of the House of Representatives which was then engaged in investigating the subject of Communism. On or about August 3, 1948, one Whittaker Chambers, also known as Jay David Whittaker Chambers, testified before that House Committee and in the course of that testimony stated in substance that Alger Hiss, the defendant in this action, in 1935 had been a member of a Communist "apparatus". Mr. Chambers testified on this subject before the House Committee on a number of occasions subsequent to August 3 but at no time in his testimony before the House Committee did he assert or claim in any way that Mr. Hiss had ever furnished to him any official documents or copies thereof. Mr. Hiss voluntarily appeared before the House Committee on August 5, 1948 and testified on that occasion and on subsequent occasions before the Committee that the charges made against him by said Whittaker Chambers were entirely untrue.

Thereafter, on or about August 27, 1948, said Whittaker Chambers in the course of a broadcast on a radio program known as "Meet the Press" over radio station WOL in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, repeated his charge that Alger Hiss had been a Communist. Thereafter, on or about September 27, 1948, Mr. Hiss began an action for libel against Mr. Chambers in the United States District Court for the District of Maryland based upon the defamatory statements made by Mr. Chambers in the course of that radio broadcast.

After issue had been joined in the libel action, the attorneys for Mr. Hiss, plaintiff in that action, who were William L. Marbury of the Baltimore firm of Marbury, Miller & Evans and your deponent, began an examination before trial of Whittaker Chambers on the issues raised in the libel action. On or about November 17, 1948, in the course of that examination before trial, Whittaker Chambers produced certain handwritten and typewritten papers purporting to be copies or summaries of documents in the files of the State Department. Chambers testified in substance that these documents were typed in Alger Hiss's home on a typewriter owned by Alger Hiss.

On November 18, 1948, Mr. Hiss, upon being advised of the testimony given by Chambers on the previous day, directed his attorneys to turn over the documents produced by Chambers to the United States Department of Justice. On November 19, 1948, representatives of the Department of Justice were informed by Mr. Marbury of the production of these documents by Chambers, and photostatic copies of the documents were delivered to the representatives of the Department of Justice by Mr. Marbury on that day. I am advised and do believe that the original documents so produced by Chambers were delivered to the Department of Justice within a day or two after November 19, 1948 and that they have ever since remained and still are in the possession of the Department of Justice.

5. On February 14, 1949 the defendant made a motion for an order, pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, directing the United States to permit him to inspect and to copy certain papers, documents and tangible objects. Among the papers, documents and tangible objects specified in that motion were included the documents and papers requested by the defendant in the instant motion, i.e.:

a. All letters, memoranda and papers of any nature claimed to have been typewritten by the defendant or by any other person on any typewriter at any time owned by, or in the possession of, the defendant or the defendant's wife or any member of the defendant's family.

b. All letters, memoranda and other papers of any nature, whether typewritten or handwritten, purporting to have been written or that may have been written at any time in whole or in part by Whittaker Chambers or by his wife.

This motion was heard by Judge William Bondy in Room 318 of the United States Court House, Foley Square, New York, New York, on February 21, 1949. In a memorandum dated April 1, 1949 and filed April 4, 1949, Judge Bondy granted the defendant's motion in respect to all letters, memoranda and papers of any nature claimed to have been typewritten by the defendant or by any other person on any typewriter at any time owned by, or in the possession of, the defendant or the defendant's wife or any member of the defendant's family, to the extent that the United States had consented to this request in its memorandum submitted to the Court at the argument of that motion. This consent was limited to "all letters, etc., which the Government will contend were typed on the Woodstock typewriter." (Gov. memo p. 7.)

The defendant's request for all letters, memoranda and other papers of any nature, whether typewritten or handwritten, purporting to have been written or that may have been written at any time in whole or in part by Whittaker Chambers or his wife, was denied by Judge Bondy in his memorandum of April 1, 1949 without prejudice to a later renewal at the trial.

6. In view of the claim of the government, made in the first trial, that certain of the Baltimore papers were typed upon a Woodstock typewriter once owned by the defendant, it is obvious that expert testimony on matters of typewriting may be necessary at the second trial. I am informed and I do believe that an intensive search has been made by the Department of Justice throughout the country for samples of typewriting purporting to have been done upon the Woodstock typewriter. By order dated April 15, 1949, Judge Bondy required that the United States permit the defendant to inspect samples of such typewriting then in its custody or control together with any samples which came into its custody or control prior to the beginning of the trial of this action. This order may not have continued beyond the date of the commencement of the first trial. If the defendant is to have an opportunity fully to prepare for the second trial, it is essential that he be permitted to have an expert inspect any samples of typewriting purporting to have been done upon the Woodstock typewriter which were not made available to him under Judge Bondy's order of April 15, 1949.

I am informed and I do believe that in the fall of 1937 the defendant acquired a second-hand Corona portable typewriter and that shortly thereafter he gave his Woodstock typewriter to Perry M. Catlett and Raymond S. Catlett. Any letters, memoranda or papers typed upon the Corona portable will be helpful in establishing the date at which this typewriter was acquired by the defendant. That date will, in turn, be evidence bearing upon the date at which the Woodstock typewriter was given to the Catletts. It is for this reason that specimens of typewriting upon typewriters other than the Woodstock are essential to the preparation of the defense of this case.

One of the basic factual issues of this case is the question of the identity of the operator who typed certain copies of State Department documents upon a typewriter which the government claims is the Woodstock typewriter once owned by the defendant. In attempting to establish the identity of this operator it is necessary that the defendant have specimens of both the typewriting and the handwriting of Whittaker Chambers and his wife. Chambers testified in the Baltimore Deposition that he had turned over samples of his typewriting to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (Balt. Dep. p. 1292). It is necessary to the preparation of the defense that the defendant have access, prior to the start of the second trial, to all letters, memoranda and other papers of any nature, whether typewritten or handwritten, purporting to have been written or that may have been written at any time in whole or in part by Whittaker Chambers or by his wife, which are in the possession of the United States.

7. Another of the crucial issues in this case is the question of the time at which the documents produced by Whittaker Chambers during the Baltimore pre-trial hearing were actually typed. The United States Attorney has agreed with the attorneys for the defendant that the defense shall have the right to inspect, before the second trial of this action, Government Exhibits Baltimore 5-47. However, the United States has consistently refused to permit the defendant to subject the paper on which these exhibits are typed to chemical and other scientific tests designed to ascertain the age, quality and characteristics of this paper. I am informed and I do believe that, as many of the exhibits in question have large blank areas, such tests can be conducted without injury to the typewritten portions thereof.

WHEREFORE deponent respectfully requests that defendant's motion for a discovery and inspection of documents, papers and tangible objects be granted.

United States of America,

Plaintiff,

-v-

Alger Hiss,

Defendant.

AFFIDAVIT

State of New York

County of New York ss:

THOMAS F. MURPHY, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

I am the Assistant United States Attorney in charge of the above entitled matter and make this affidavit in opposition to the defendant's order to show cause why an order should not be made pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure permitting the defendant to inspect and copy certain documents and to submit others to experts for testing as to quality, age and characteristics.

The requested documents fall into two categories: (a) typewritten documents emanating from any typewriter previously belonging to the defendant, and (b) typewritten or handwritten documents emanating from persons not parties to this proceeding, to wit, Whittaker Chambers and his wife Esther Chambers.

The last prayed for relief requests this Court to permit the defendant through alleged experts to partially destroy by chemicals or other agents a large number of necessary Government exhibits in order, as they say, to test the paper on which such documents are typed for quality, age and characteristics.

The Government opposes the granting of any of the relief sought and will address itself separately to each of the categories hereinbefore described. The relief sought purports to be based upon the power vested in the District Court by Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, which authorizes the Court to permit inspection and discovery of certain documents in two limited classes: (1) if the documents belong to the defendant, or (2) if they were obtained from others by seizure or process.

As I read the defendant's moving papers, it seems to me that what he is requesting under the first category are any typewritten documents purporting to have come from the defendant's Woodstock typewriter, which were not made available to the defendant pursuant to the order of the Honorable William Bondy dated April 15, 1949. In other words, the defendant wants to know what typewritten documents the Government has discovered since its investigation began in this case and which were not used at the first trial, and which might not be used even at the second. In short, the defendant wants all of the results of the Government's investigative industry whether the Government intends to use the documents or not.

It is respectfully submitted that the law and justice requires a showing, under Rule 16, that the documents requested either belong to the defendant or that they were secured from others by seizure or process; and unless such a showing affirmatively appears, the Court lacks the necessary power. The defendant not satisfied merely with wanting to see the specimens from the Woodstock typewriter upon which the important evidence in the case was typed wishes to see specimens from all other typewriters allegedly belonging to the defendant. His reasoning in support of this request is that it will help him fix the date when he says he gave the Woodstock typewriter to the Catletts. Oddly enough, the defendant doesn't state this, but his attorney makes the oath, thus avoiding possible cross-examination material. It is respectfully submitted that an inspection of such material is not for the spurious purpose alleged, but merely to learn in advance what material the Government has in its possession to confront and confuse the defendant when he takes the stand and offers the story of the gift of the typewriter to the Catletts. Obviously, the typewritten specimens from the Corona typewriter could not help fix the date of the alleged gift of the Woodstock typewriter. The defendant has already testified under oath that he gave it to the Catletts prior to January 1, 1938.

The second category of documents requested are those typewritten and handwritten documents of the witnesses, Whittaker Chambers and Esther Chambers. The defendant's attorney says that these are needed so as to help in the determination of who the operator of the Woodstock machine was at the time the "Baltimore papers were written". This category falls outside of the scope of Rule 16 since there is no affirmative showing that these documents belong to the defendant or were seized from others or obtained by process. Even if such a showing was made, it strains one's imagination to see how that would tend to prove who the operator of the Woodstock typewriter was. It can hardly be claimed that an expert could tell what individual typed a certain instrument by having a specimen of his typing since the impressions are made by a mechanical means, and how handwriting could help in determination of who was the operator who typed a certain instrument seems more incredulous.

The third item of relief presents a serious question of whether the Court can permit the physical destruction of evidence on an affidavit of an attorney that some expert can tell the quality, age and characteristics of paper.

It is respectfully submitted that the Court must satisfy itself beyond any shadow of doubt that there are such experts who can made such scientific determination; and then, in that event, I submit that the Court should limit such test to selected instruments of the great many included in Government's Exhibit Baltimore 5-47, and further limit the test so as to prevent the complete destruction of an important exhibit.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully prayed that the instant motion be denied.

(s) THOMAS F. MURPHY.

[ORDER]

There has not been any showing that the documents referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) were obtained from, or belonged to, the defendant, or were taken from others by seizure or process. The requirements of Rule 16, F.R.Cr.P., accordingly have not been met. U.S. v. Chandler, 7 F.R.D. 365: See Shores v. U.S., 174 F. (2d) 838, 842-45. The motion to inspect those documents, made under that rule, is therefore denied.

The motion, likewise made under Rule 16, to permit an inspection and test of certain government exhibits for the purpose of ascertaining the "quality, age and characteristics" of the paper upon which they are typed is denied without prejudice to a renewal thereof at trial. It does not affirmatively appear that any such test can be made or, if made, conducted without mutilation of the exhibits. Moreover, Rule 16, while permitting inspection, copying and photographing of documents, makes no provision for subjecting them to tests.

Statement to Federal Bureau of Investigation signed by Claudie Catlett February 10, 1949.

Reproduced on following pages.

Winchester, Va
Feb. 10, 1949

I Claudia Catlett, give the following statement to Robert J. Chichester and John C. Howard, who I know to be Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. No threats or promises have been made to induce me to give this statement. I have been advised that I do not have to make any such statement and that I have the right to consult an attorney prior to giving a statement. I know that any statement I may make can be used as evidence in Federal Court.

My maiden name is Claudia Myers I was married about 27 years ago to Terry L. Catlett, I do not know whether or not my husband has procured a divorce. I am usually known as Claudia Catlett in Washington D.C. and Claudia Myers in Winchester, Va. I now live at 542 N. Kent St. Winchester, Va. I am 47 years of age and I have 5 living children. I first did laundry work for Mrs. Alger Hiss, as well as I can now recall this was about six months before the Hisses moved to the house on 30th St. I first started working for Mrs. Alger Hiss on the recommendation of Mrs. Donald Hiss. When I first started working for Mrs. Hiss she would bring her laundry to my house and call for it when it was done. I did laundry work for Mrs. Hiss for about [illegible] then went to work regular for her. When the Alsos moved from 5th Av. to 30th Av. they took with them one bed, several small chairs, some of which were black with a gold ivy design on them, a secretary, a small table, their books, their typewriter, and their personal belongings. These household goods were moved by some moving company the name of which I no longer recall. During the time the Alger Alsos lived on 30th Av. I worked for them every day, with a half day off on Thursday and Sunday. I usually went to work at 8 am the time I would leave would vary, I sometimes worked to 9 or 10 pm and later. I went with the Alger Alsos when they moved to Cobra St. and continued working for them as I had on 30th Av.

As well as I can recall at present I stopped working for the Alger Alsos sometime in the summer of 1938. After I quit working for them Mrs Hine would come to see me at my home at 2728 W 1st Av. Vancouver B.C. She finally suggested that I go to the clinic at Georgetown Hospital, which I did. Prior to my illness in the summer of 1938 I had worked steadily for them since going to work for them on 5th Av. with only an occasional day off due to illness. The only times I would not work for any period of time would be while the Alsos were out of town. While working for the Alger Alsos regularly I did general housework, laundry, cooking and sometimes babysitting.

On Feb. 1, 1944 I was introduced to Mr.

Whittaker Chambers, in the office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington, D.C. As soon as I saw Mr. Chambers — I recalled that I had known him before. I did not know Mr. Chambers name when I saw him before and do not now recall any name that he was known by or called by at that time. As well as I can presently recall I saw Mr. Chambers, prior to meeting him at the F.B.I. office, at 2905 P St. N.W. (CC) As well as I can recall Mr. Chambers came to the Alger Hiss house on P St. (CC) and I went to the door to let him in about the time I got the door open Mrs. ~~Chambers~~ Hiss (CC) came to the door from the living room and asked me to fix some tea for them. I then went to the kitchen in the basement to fix tea. I served this tea to Mrs. Hiss and Mr. Chambers in the parlor while was they in back on the floor above the basement. I merely took the tea thing in and placed them on the table, then in doing so I took a good look at the man who I now know was Chambers. I looked at this man closely at this time because I had never seen him before and also because he was poorly dressed and ~~looked~~ did not look like the people who usually called on the Alger Hisses. I do not now recall seeing the man I now know as Mr. Chambers again, I feel positive I never saw him after the Hisses moved from (CC) P St. ~~he~~ I (CC) may have seen him on another occasion on P St. but I do not remember it at this time. I do not recall Mr. Chambers staying overnight or for any period of time at the home of the Alger Hisses while I worked for them.

After I quit working for the Hisses I did no work at all for some time as well as I can recall now I did no work from the summer of 1938 to about Christmas 1938. At Christmas 1938 I helped the Hisses regular maid serve dinner. After this I started doing days work for the Hisses and others. I never went back to working regular for the Alger Hisses.

I recall seeing a red rug with a fringe on it in the Hiss house on 30th. This rug was in a closet next to the kitchen in the front part of the basement. The rug was rolled up & tied it was a regular room size rug. The Hisses did not use this rug in the house on 30th St. and I don't know when or where they got it. They may have had the rug while living on P St as there was a room there in which things were stored. That room was locked and I never went in it.

I recall asking Mrs. Hiss why they did not use this rug and as well as I can recall at this time she told me it was because it did not belong to her. Later on when they moved to the Volta Pl. house this rug was put on the floor of Tony Hobson's room.

When I first went to work for the Alger [illegible] they had a rusty looking old car with a top that let down. This car was of a larger size in front & a smaller size in back. While still living on O St. they bought a new gray Hupmobile. For awhile both the new gray car and the old rusty one were parked out in front of the house on O St. sometime about two weeks after the Hisses bought the new car the old car was taken away and I never saw it after that. I don't know what happened to the old car, but I never saw it again. I am sure they got the new car on O St. because I remember seeing the two cars parked together and because they would take me home in the new car, they never took me home in the old car.

I recall the Alger Hisses had a typewriter which I first saw on O St. I do not know the make of this typewriter, nor do I know whether or not it was a portable typewriter. If it was a portable I never saw it in any case. I remember they moved this typewriter from O St. to 30th St. and from 30th St. to Volta Pl. After the Hisses moved to 3210 P St. I went there to visit them I saw a typewriter in the house at this time. I do not know that it was the same typewriter that they had when I worked for them but it looked the same as far as I can recall.

I have seen a photograph of Mrs. Whittaker Chambers and the Chambers child but I do not recall ever having seen the people at any time [illegible] ever visiting the Alger Hisses or any of the places that I worked for them or at any time while I was there.

When the Alger Hisses moved from 30th St. to Volta Pl. their furniture and household effects were moved for them by moving van. I do not know the name of the company to which this van belonged. So far as I know they moved every thing in the 30th St. house to Volta Pl. with the exception of the ~~kitchen~~ kitchen stove and other such fixtures.

When I helped serve at the Alger Hiss home at Christmas 1938 the maid who was at that time working for them was named Priscilla. She is the only maid who worked for the Hisses whose name is known to me.

Mr. Chichester has read the foregoing statement aloud in my presence and has gone over it with me. I understand its meaning and have initialed each page of it and the errors in it. This statement is written in longhand on this and 5 other pages. This statement is true and correct to the best of my present recollection and belief.

Dear Noel:

Larry has sent me a copy of your letter to him of April 19. I have read it with interest and was indeed glad to get first-hand news of you and Herta. I hope that your health is now fully regained.

The Endowment does not have occasion to use reporting officers, and our current program is concentrated on the United Nations, so that I do not see any way that we could work out any arrangement covering your interesting project. I think, on the other hand, that you would be well advised to establish regular writing connections with periodicals in this country. This would make you known as a reporter on eastern Europe and I feel sure that once a few contacts were established they would be kept going.

Last night I spoke to Miss Freda Kirchwey of the Nation about you, and she said that she would write directly to you. She indicated very real interest in having you do a series of articles for the Nation. I have sent her a copy of your memorandum and hope that you will be hearing from her.

Larry tells me that he will be speaking to the people in charge of publishing Harper's Magazine and will let you know the results of his inquiry. There would certainly be nothing inconsistent in writing regularly for the Nation with occasional longer articles for Harper's. I think, particularly after you have had several articles published, you would have every good chance of getting occasional articles into the United Nations World (385 Madison Avenue, New York 17), of which Louis Dolivet is the International Editor. I do not know the protocol about writing both for the Nation and the New Republic at the same time. I suppose this would depend upon the regularity of any arrangement you might make with Miss Kirchwey. Certainly I would see no impediment to occasional articles in both journals. You might, in any event, want to write to Michael Straight at the New Republic. Incidentally, as you probably know, he and Dolivet have some sort of family connection. Dolivet is either Michael's brother-in-law or is Michael's wife's brother-in-law.

I do hope that things work along these lines and shall be interested to hear of future developments.

With all best wishes to you and to Herta,

Ever sincerely yours,

Alger Hiss.

Order of Judge Chesnut filed December 31, 1948, in Alger Hiss v. Whittaker Chambers, United States District Court for the District of Maryland.

In the United States District Court for the District of Maryland

Civil Action No. 4176

Alger Hiss
v.
Whittaker Chambers

Filed December 31, 1948.

ORDER WITH RESPECT TO PRE-TRIAL DEPOSITION OF WHITTAKER CHAMBERS

This case is a private civil suit for damages for alleged slander and libel. The complaint was filed September 27, 1948, with a supplemental complaint filed on October 7, 1948. The alleged slander and libel shortly stated is that the defendant spoke and caused to be published of and concerning the plaintiff that the latter, while an employee of the State and other Departments of the United States, was a Communist and as such disloyal to the United States. The defendant has appeared and filed answers making the defense of justification, that is, that his statements were true. That is the particular issue in the case.

During November 1948 the plaintiff exercised the right given by Rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, to take the deposition by oral examination, to be stenographically reported, of the defendant Chambers. In the course of the oral examination the witness Chambers produced certain documents purporting to be copies of originals taken from the confidential files of the Department of State of the United States, and which Chambers said had been given to him by the plaintiff Hiss. Upon examination of these documents by counsel for the respective parties to the case, it appeared to both of them that the papers were apparently such that in the public interest they should at once, with the approval of their clients, be brought to the attention of the Department of Justice. The further oral examination of the witness Chambers was then by agreement of counsel temporarily suspended.

Recently counsel for both parties have conferred with the court with regard to resuming the taking of the deposition of the witness. At this conference there were also present representatives of the Department of Justice. Counsel for the plaintiff announced that they proposed to continue the taking of the depositions but understood the Department of Justice wished to interpose an objection thereto and for that reason representatives of the Department had been invited to attend jointly with counsel for the parties. Counsel for the defendant Chambers, who was also the witness, stated their position to be that neither they nor the defendant as a witness made any objection to the continuance of the deposition and expressed willingness to answer any and all questions relevant to the issue in the case; but that as they understood the Department of Justice was making some objection thereto, the latter had been notified to attend the informal hearing, and state their views.

It was then brought to the attention of the court by those present that as a result of the examination of the documents referred to by the Department of Justice and subsequent examination of the subject matter, further testimony had been taken by a Grand Jury in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York at which both Hiss and Chambers had given evidence as witnesses and that thereafter that Grand Jury had filed an indictment against Hiss for alleged perjury in certain evidence given by him before the Grand Jury including particularly his statement that he had not given to Chambers the documents referred to; and that the trial of that indictment case has now been set for February 24, 1949. The representative of the Department of Justice, therefore, wished to interpose an objection to further examination of Chambers in the libel case pending in this court, until after the trial of the criminal case in New York. It was not suggested or contended by the Department of Justice that they had a right to intervene in the civil case or to insist upon the objection, but they wished to have their objection considered by the court on the grounds of possible public interest involved.

More specifically, the grounds for the objection were (a) that the federal rules of criminal procedure which would be applicable to the trial of the criminal case make no provision for pre-trial examination of a prospective witness in the case and (b) that the continuation of the pre-trial deposition of Chambers (who is expected to be an important witness for the United States in the criminal case) in this civil case would in effect afford the defendant in the criminal case a possible advantage otherwise unavailable except for the pendency of the civil case, and to be used as a possible basis for cross-examination of Chambers as a witness in the criminal case.

I have carefully considered these objections but do not find that they constitute, from the standpoint of public interest, a sufficient reason for denying to the plaintiff in the civil case, instituted long before the criminal case, exercise of the procedural right afforded by rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; nor does it appear that the exercise of this right by the plaintiff in the civil case will be contrary to the proper public interests involved in the trial of the criminal case. The continued pre-trial examination of the witness Chambers in the civil case must, of course, be limited by the applicable federal civil rules which provide that the scope of the examination is limited to discovery of facts relevant to the issue in that case. The witness, who is also the defendant, will, of course, be represented by counsel at the time. If questions are asked not relevant to the particular issue, objection can be made and the matter submitted to the court which, under rules 30(b) and (d) and 37, for good cause shown, may limit the scope of examination. I also assume that there will be no objection on the part of the plaintiff made to the presence of a representative of the Department of Justice during the taking of the deposition, if desired. Nor does it appear that there should be any proper objection from the standpoint of public interest in the fullest ascertainment of the real and true facts of important matter involved. In this connection the representatives of the Department of Justice state that they know of no facts as a result of their own interviews with the witness Chambers, that would be to the prejudice of their case. And in any event it seems clear enough that both the civil and the criminal cases, if both are tried, should be prosecuted with the sole object of determining the real and true relevant facts. Whether the continuation of the deposition will develop any further facts is, of course, a matter that cannot be known to the court at this time.

For these reasons I conclude that the plaintiff in the civil case is entitled under the rules to proceed with his completion of the deposition of the witness Chambers which was only voluntarily and temporarily suspended as above stated.

(Sgd.) W. Calvin Chesnut,
U. S. District Judge.

GILLIAT & COMPANY, AGENTS
2625 DUMBARTON AVE. N.W.
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Lease
(In Triplicate)

This Agreement, Made this 2nd day of December, 1937, between Katherine H. Flanagan party of the first part, and Alger Hiss party of the second part:

Witnesseth, That the party of the first part does hereby lease unto the party of the second part premises known as 3415 Volta Place, Northwest, Washington, D. C.

for the term of Nine months beginning on the First day of January 1938, and ending on the 30th day of September, 1938, for and in consideration of the sum of Nine Hundred 00/100 Dollars - - - - - ($ 900.00), payable by the party of the second part without demand at the office of GILLIAT & COMPANY, Agents, in equal monthly installments of One Hundred 00/100 Dollars - - - - - - - ($ 100.00) the first installment to be paid on the execution of this lease, and the remaining installments to be paid monthly in advance on the First day of every month thereafter, without demand therefor and without any deductions therefrom whatever, same to be begin on the First day of February, 1938, and of the covenants, conditions and agreements hereinafter contained and by the part of the second part to be kept, done and performed.

The party of the second part, for himself and his heirs, executors and administrators, covenants and agrees to take the premises as tenant of the party of the first part for the term aforesaid; that he will pay the rent in the manner and at the times aforesaid; that he will not assign this leose or sub-let the premises or any part thereof without the written consent of the party of the first part; that he will not use or suffer to be used the premises for any disorderly or unlawful purpose, or for any other purpose than as a dwelling private*; that* he will not moke any alterations or changes in the premises, or increase the rate of fire insurance thereon beyond an ordinary risk; that he will pay all charges for gas, electricity, telephone and water used on the premises when the bills therefor become due and payable; that he will remove ice and snow from the sidewalks; and that he will at the end of his tenancy surrender the said premises, in the like good order in which they are received, ordinary wear and tear and loss or damage by fire and storm excepted.

That he will not place nor permit to be placed any signs in or on the interior or exterior of the said leased premises; without written permission from the party of the first part or her Agents.

That during the last month of this tenancy____he____will permit the party of the first part or__her____Agents to enter upon said premises at reasonable hours, for the purpose of showing the same to prospective future tenants or purchasers.

Provided that if the party____of the second part shall fail to pay the rent as aforesaid, or shall violate any of the covenants, conditions, and agreements herein contained, then and in such event the party of the first part, if___he____so elect, may proceed to recover possession of the premises by due process of law, any notice to quit being hereby expressly waived by the party____of the second part, but no waiver of a breach of any covenant, condition or agreement herein contained (or compromise or settlement before or after judgment) shall be construed to be a waiver of the condition, covenant or agreement itself, or of any subsequent breach thereof.

Provided further, in the event of a breach by the party____of the second part of any of the covenants, conditions and agreements herein, and the recovery of the possession of the premises by the party of the first part, the party____of the second part shall not be hereby relieved of___his__liability for the payment of the rent for the unexpired term; and the party of the first part shall have the right to re-let the premises for the benefit of the party____of the second part.

It is mutually agreed that payment of rent shall cease if the said premises shall be destroyed by fire, or be so damaged by fire or any unavoidable casualty as to make the same uninhabitable, and in such event either party may forthwith terminate this lease by written notice to that effect.

It is further agreed that the party of the first part will make all structural repairs to the exterior and interior of the within demised premises that may not be due to the negligence of the party of the second part.

The party of the first part covenants and agrees to pay to Gilliat & Company, Agents, in consideration of services rendered in connection with this lease the usual brokerage commission as established by the Washington Real Estate Board on all rentals collected during this lease, and on all extensions and renewals thereof.

It is agreed that the party of the first part will paint kitchen walls and woodwork and if it is possible to match paper in the middle bed room she will re-paper the South wall.

The party of the second part shall have the privilege of renewing this lease at a rental of not more than $110.00 per month for one year from September 30th, 1938/ provided he gives notice of his intention to exercise said privilege on or before August 31st, 1938.

G.H.

In Witness Whereof, The parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals on the day and year first hereinbefore written.
